

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE NOW PLANS PARTY TO CONTROL ALL POLICE AND COURTS

alone in New York City, to have wasted its energy in fighting that Police Department in a worse than futile effort to make it fight the liquor traffic."

This naive declaration that the Police Department of this city is working for the Anti-Saloon League leads to enlightenment on the objective of the "Allied Citizens of America."

The "Allied Citizens" is to be the voting adjunct of the Anti-Saloon League.

Mr. Anderson declares that his manual is based on recognition of the fact that it may take twenty years to clinch Prohibition so as to secure general, permanent and willing acceptance of it, but if there is "reasonable enforcement" for five years, ultimate victory is certain.

The Anti-Saloon League, he says, is a league of organizations. It has no individual membership.

The individual membership—bound by a voting pledge—is to be furnished by the "Allied Citizens." Only in the State of New York is the title "Allied Citizens" necessary to the formation of a local organization committed to the plans of the Anti-Saloon League, outside New York a State organization with local organizations may take any name it pleases—BUT, unless it operates along the lines of the Anti-Saloon League it may not expect any support from the State or national organizations of that body.

On page 51 of the pamphlet Mr. Anderson makes plain that the GENERAL ORGANIZATION of the "Allied Citizens" is to be absolutely non-political in its activities. "It will," he says, "hold undeviatingly to its educational character and leave the questioning, discussion and recommendation of candidates for State offices affecting enforcement to the State organization of the Anti-Saloon League which is already active in that field."

Active membership in the "Allied Citizens" carries no financial obligation. This is impressed upon prospective members.

On page 55, however, Mr. Anderson comes into the vital matter connected with the "Allied Citizens"—namely, funds. A considerable part of the pamphlet, by the way, is devoted to explicit instructions on how to GET THE MONEY and this phase will be treated of later in the review of Mr. Anderson's effort.

On page 55, Mr. Anderson elucidates that there are to be three classes of members in the "Allied Citizens"—the active, the sustaining and the contributing. The sustaining members are to contribute $1 a year. The contributing members are divided into five classes from A class, which involves a drop-in of $100 a year, down to E class, which carries an obligation of $5 per year.

The "Allied Citizens" is not to be an organized party in politics with an emblem on the ballot. It is to be a secret party, and one of the instructions to members is to enroll with the majority party in order to vote in the primaries where primaries are held. As to the independence of candidates this appears on page 62.

The local organization can both demonstrate and crystallize sentiment in favor of some particularly well qualified candidate, and then assume the burden of circulating the nominating or designating petitions or whatever formalities are required.

The manual contains a lengthy appeal for the support of the Anti-Saloon League. It carries a promise, through Mr. Anderson, that the league will do the "dirty work" in any community where the business or social interests of the members of the "Allied Citizens" might suffer from open advocacy of enforcement of the Volstead act.

Membership in the "Allied Citizens" is not to be entirely voluntary. In cases where persons at heart in sympathy with the objects of the organization are unwilling to engage openly in its activities they will be permitted to give moral and pecuniary support.

The plan incorporates the education of every citizen in any community by membership in the "Allied Citizens." The process is hardly possible in New York City, but is predicated on the intimate life of smaller communities. Says Mr. Anderson on this point:

"NO VALID REASON CAN BE GIVEN BY ANY CITIZEN FOR REFUSING TO SIGN THE COVENANT."

NANT—the pledge of membership in the "Allied Citizens." What that means is that any citizen refusing to join the "Allied Citizens" is to be branded as a run-around of a friend of the liquor interests. PUBLICITY is the essence of Mr. Anderson's plan and that phase of it will also be treated of later.

We find from Mr. Anderson's book that the Anti-Saloon League, through the "Allied Citizens," is bent upon having every member of the community, the constitution of the United States. Here is the proposed "Americanization Amendment" as set forth in Mr. Anderson's compilation on page 75:

"Article I—Section 1—In appointing representatives among the several States according to their respective numbers, aliens shall not be counted."

"Section 2—The Congress shall have power to define the meaning of the term alien and to enforce, by appropriate legislation, the provisions of this article."

The object of the proposed amendment is, of course, to diminish the membership in Congress of representatives from large cities, which the Prohibitionists desire, are known to "vote" in support of Mr. Anderson's plan.

Mr. Anderson explains that in the following paragraph, he proposes to:

"As Congress will for a long time determine the conditions under which Prohibition enforcement must be carried on, this proposal, in addition to being aimed at the promotion of wholehearted support of the enforcement of Prohibition, is aimed at the promotion of the enforcement of Prohibition."

Furthermore, the "Allied Citizens" organization is committed to a move to force judges of courts of jurisdiction to refuse citizenship to aliens who will not definitely swear that they will obey the Volstead act. This is set forth on page 66 of Mr. Anderson's pamphlet under the heading "Changing the Attitude of Aliens."

And describing how the "Allied Citizens" should be a means of improving the sentiment of aliens toward the law.

From page 67 to 69, Mr. Anderson's pamphlet is a proclamation that the only law of any importance at this time, and to five years or more to come, is and will be the Volstead act. The "Allied Citizens" plan describes how judges, prosecutors and judicial officers are to be approached and advised as to their conduct.

"Notifying and warning officials" is a heading on page 80. Under the title, "Confer with Prosecuting Attorney," on page 67, this appears:

"The District Attorney should be given an opportunity for a conference with the 'Allied Citizens' to talk over the situation and then frankly to tell that while the intention is to stand by officials in the discharge of their duty, yet the 'Allied Citizens' and the public which it represents are not bound to accept an official's endorsement of his duty to the public if it differs from the public's own ideas."

"Great care should be taken," admonishes Mr. Anderson, on page 68, "that every member of the community understands that it would be an almost criminal blunder to undertake to talk to any Judge about any case pending before him, because that is contempt of court, if not conspiracy to obstruct justice."

"If the Judge in question has been imposing light fines and refraining from the imposition of prison sentences, or has been refusing to issue indictments, it should be made clear that if necessary, in formal action and public statement that the citizens of the community represented by the 'Allied Citizens' believe that such a policy in fact constitutes a contempt of court, in an encouragement to the violation of the law and makes a mockery of justice, and that a Judge is expected to use his full power to make the law effective."

The "Allied Citizens" will work for the passage of a law allowing the prosecution to take a chance of venue in the case of a person accused of violation of the Volstead act from a community in which he might have a chance of acquittal to a community in which he would be sure to be convicted. It is also in favor of the passage of a law denying persons accused of violation of the Volstead act of the right of trial by jury. It will advise its members to serve on juries and will go so far as to furnish them with an answer to a question concerning their qualifications which may be put to a juror during the trial. Here is the promised answer, which is supposed to be proof against "sister" objections:

"I was in favor of Prohibition when that was the issue, but that is no longer the issue. The sole question now is one of enforcing the law. If accepted on this jury, and the accused is shown by the weight of the evidence, beyond a reasonable doubt, to be guilty of violating the law I will vote for his conviction. If it is not so shown I will vote for his acquittal. I have no opinions which will interfere with fidelity to my oath to give justice according to the law and the evidence and the instructions of the court."

There is a whole lot more in Mr. Anderson's pamphlet, particularly in relation to how to "Get the Money" and to methods of organizing an official law enforcement machine, outside the designated movements of the officials elected by the voters or selected by their executives, which will make interesting reading in another article.

McMANUS GETS BACK HIS $3,000 IN BOOZE

It was in His Home and was taken Without Warrant.

In dismissing ten complaints brought under the Mullan-Baugh Law Judge McManus to-day ruled that it was a principle as old as the common law itself that no one had the right to search a man's premises without a search warrant. One of the complaints was brought to declare forfeited the own ship of alleged liquor seized by the police from Peter McManus, proprietor of a restaurant on West 19th Street and a former saloon-keeper.

In May last the police entered McManus' place. It was alleged, and found no doubt on the ground floor, taking the key from McManus, they went upstairs, where it was alleged, they found $2,000 worth. McManus' contents were of no value, he alleged.
